Simple and easy to use Self-Contained Control Station for access control and security applications.

Designed for low cost access control and security applications it is easy to install and provides access control to internal doors. Suitable for office use, banks, finance houses and isolation of security zones

Operation :
12vdc suitable for simple access control of internal doors and for shunting of security zones.

Master Code :
Programmable up to 6 digits for added security requirements.

User Code :
Up to 30 user codes. Arm/Disarm codes are user programmable to operate with 2 to 6 digits.

Security of programs :
In case of power down or power failure, all programmed data will remain.

Compatibility :
Can be used with all electric strikes, dropbolts, electromagnetic locks operating on 12Vdc.

Esthetically suited for most light colored walls, windows or doors.

Two outputs available for latching or momentary operation.

Audible indication of key presses and programming status.

High quality material ensuring long lasting performance.

Selectable fast arming (single digit) facility for each output.

Bell Output activates when 'star' key is pressed.

LED indicator for 'power on' and programming status.