

Simple and easy to use self-contained station for access control and security applications.

Designed for low cost access control and security applications. It is easy to install and provides access control to internal doors. Suitable for office use, banks, finance house.

Operation :

12vdc suitable for simple access control of internal doors and for shunting of security zones.

Master Code :

Programmable up to 6 digits for added security requirement.

User Code :

Up to 30 user codes. Locks/Unlock code are user programmable to operate up to 6 digits.

Proximity card :

Up to 500 card

Security of programs :

In case of power down or power failure, all programmable data will remain.

Compatibility :

Can be used with all electric strikes, dropbolts, electromagnetic locks operating on 12Vdc.

Esthetically suited for most light colored walls, windows or door

Selectable fast arming (single digit) facility for each output

Outputs are programmable as latching or momentary operation

Bell output activates when 'star' key is pressed.

Audible indication of keypress and programming status

LED indicator for power on and programming status

High quality material ensuring long lasting performance

4' to 6' reading range for proximity card